13th February, 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

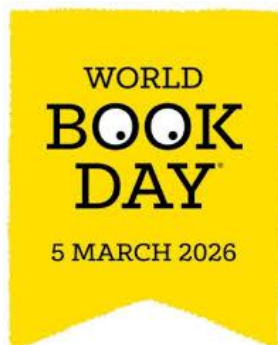

Bags2School - FOBS have organised for Bags2School to have a collection on Thursday 26th February. Children should have now brought home their Bags2School collection bags where you can fill them with clothes, paired shoes, handbags, hats, scarf, ties, socks, jewellery and belts which you no longer use. On Thursday 26th February, place your filled sacks under the bike shelter for collection.

Parent/Carer CAMHS session – Amanda Baxter, our CAMHS Practitioner, is holding a parent/carer session on Thursday 26th February, 2026. The session is 'Understanding emotional well-being and mental health in my child'. The session will start at 9am.

Written by Year 4 School Councilors:

Year 4 went to York for the day, to visit DIG and Jorvik, as part of our work on Vikings. At DIG, we found lots of artefacts in a pit and thought about what they told us about the people who lived there. After that, we went to Jorvik and stood where the Vikings stood a thousand years ago. It was an amazing day and we loved it.

World Book Day – Thursday 5th March

This year, for our World Book Day celebration, on Thursday 5th March, we would like to invite you all to dress up as your favourite book character and take part in a series of creative sessions based around some classic British authors.

EYFS, supported by our Reading ambassadors in the afternoon, will have their learning themed around Beatrix Potter.

Year 1 and 3 will have their learning themed around A.A. Milne (Winnie the Pooh)

Year 2 and 5 will have their learning themed around C.S Lewis (The Chronicles of Narnia)

Year 4 and 6 will have their learning themed around Lewis Carroll (Alice's Adventures in Wonderland)
